

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE 20TH
JUDICIAL CIRCUIT IN AND FOR
COLLIER COUNTY, FLORIDA

Plaintiff(s), vs.

Case No.

Defendant(s),

_____ /

ORDER PERMITTING WITHDRAWAL OF ATTORNEY

THIS CASE came before the Court for hearing upon counsel's Motion to Withdraw as Attorney of Record for _____, in the above-styled cause and the Court having reviewed the pleadings, heard argument, and being otherwise fully advised in the premises, does hereby:

FIND, ORDER, and ADJUDICATE:

1. _____ is permitted to withdraw as attorney/counsel of record for _____, in the above-styled case and is relieved of any further action in this case. In consequence thereof, _____ is now deemed to be a pro se (self-representing litigant).
2. By operation of law, a pro se party must be held to the same standards as an attorney. The Court cannot give any legal advice to a pro se litigant. It is a pro se litigant's responsibility to familiarize him/herself with the law applicable to their case, the legal rules (eg. Florida Rules of Court), the Evidence Code, court records (eg. Orders), and anything else applicable to the case. Failure to follow law, rules, orders of the Court, et cetera may result in adverse consequences for a non-compliant pro se litigant, including but not limited to entry of any Order imposing sanctions, fees, fines, court costs, default, dismissal, and/or such other relief as the Court deems appropriate and the law permits.
3. All further communication shall be directed to _____ at the following address and telephone number as provided by withdrawing counsel: _____

4. _____ shall have thirty (30) days from this date of this Order to retain new counsel. All pending matters in the cause are temporarily stayed or otherwise abated for said period. Said period shall expire early in the event the pro se party files a notice of intention to represent him/herself during the thirty (30) day period or if a licensed attorney in good standing authorized to practice law in the State of Florida files a notice of appearance or other pleading on the party's behalf. Thereafter, the Court will entertain any motions to dismiss.

5. In the event new counsel does not file a notice of appearance or other pleading during the next thirty (30) days, the above referenced party shall be deemed a pro se litigant and the case shall normally proceed after the thirty (30) day stay/abatement period has passed. This provision does not apply to a corporate entity, however, as Florida law only allows an individual proper person to represent oneself. In the event a corporate entity fails to timely secure counsel along with a timely filed notice of appearance, said party may be subjected to entry of a dismissal of its claims (if any) and/or the striking of its answer and defenses along with the entry of an adverse (default) judgment against it.
